

Why would you limit my privacy? Why would you allow unwanted people into my home and my life? I LOVE NJ's do not call law and simply do not understand why the people with money should win over those without. Just because a small minority of people complain (i.e. those who want to intrude on my life) you seriously consider giving up my right to a private home. UNbelievable.